

DISCLOSURE OF OWNERSHIP & FINANCIAL INTEREST

A partnership by the physicians of Orthopedic & Fracture Clinic along with Providence Health & Services was finalized on January 1st, 2009. This joint venture formed as a result of their commitment to quality health care and to provide better service to their patients. This is to inform you of the following:

- Your physician may be an owner in or of this facility. Currently at CSS the following physicians have ownership interest: Paul Duwelius, MD, Jay Brad Butler, MD, James Davitt, MD, Ed Lairson, MD, McPherson Beall, MD, Jason Kurian, MD, Alec Denes, MD, Brett Andres, MD, Alex DeHaan, MD, Mark Manoso, MD, and Kimberly Workman, MD.
- The facility may have a financial relationship with your physician as indicated above.
- You have the right to choose where to receive services, including the entity in which your physician may have a financial relationship.

Center for Specialty Surgery is specifically designed to accommodate surgical procedures which do not require the extensive inpatient needs. They assist in allowing patients to return home the same day following their procedures. As a result, the utilization of an outpatient surgery center is more economical and is recognized as an effective means of controlling costs of providing medical services for patients.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding Center for Specialty Surgery, please feel free to contact the administrator us at your convenience.
